

"I am a Berliner!"

The supranational powers are not insurmountable, they have two very vulnerable places, and they are called truth and the public.

"All truth runs through three steps: first it is ridiculed or distorted, then it is combated, and finally it is assumed to be self-evident." --Arthur Schopenhauer

Why was John F. Kennedy murdered?

"Ladies and Gentlemen, Secrecy is repugnant in a free and open society. As a people we have a natural and historical aversion to Secret societies and secret societies. The disadvantages of excessive secrecy exceed the dangers which justify this secrecy. It makes no sense to meet a non-free society by imitating its limitations. The survival of our nation is of no value if our liberal traditions do not continue. There is a very serious danger that the pretext of security will be abused to extend censorship and secrecy. "

... We are dealing with a monolithic and nefarious global conspiracy that spreads its influence with covert means: with infiltration instead of invasion, with an overthrow instead of elections, with intimidation instead of self-determination, with guerrilla fighters at night, instead of armies a day. It is a system that has built up a complex and efficient machinery that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations with vast human and material resources. Their plans are not published, they are hidden, their bugs are buried, not published, other people are not praised, they are silenced, no issue is questioned, no rumor is printed, no mystery is revealed. »

- John F. Kennedy on 27 April 1961 in a speech before newspaper publishers. This speech evidently cost him his life.

Book OM 32: 1979. "To bury the truth, there are not enough shovels."

..and those who are trying to dig their own graves ...

Quote: Billy Meier, the true prophet of modern times.

Only the small secrets must be preserved, because the great ones keep themselves, due to public unbelief. There is nothing so peculiar to the fine skin of vanity as the application of a harsh truth.

The religions and sects are a common madness, which is all the more powerful, as it is a madness, whose origin is lost in the remotest antiquity. And with regard to this psychotic fantasy, the Christian religion - as well as sects and certain other religions - asserts. If, then, this whole Christian-religious nonsense is looked at, then it can be seen that the whole thing turns out to be extraordinarily underdeveloped consciousness, which could only develop from a diseased human brain.

This is how people of the earth can be said to be minions in your consciousness, in your reason, and in your mind.

In contrast to this, however, you have the power of a giant in all your incomprehension, in your unreason, in your hatred, in your unhappiness and disharmony, as well as in your urge for revenge, retribution, anger and anger. And in this way you are entering with enormous steps into your existence and into the future of the Third Millennium, whereby you are completely misled and do not know which way you should really go, even though you have stuffed yourself with many school-knowledge that you But does not bring any knowledge with regard to life and creation as well as their laws and commandments. So you do not know why you are living and dying at all, for the world of creature-induced becoming and degenerate is as alien to you as the effective creative truth itself, if you curs in your ignorance only about your life, then again whimpering and as mad with the The poor wags.

Your fanatics among the faithful of the religions, sects, ideologies and philosophies - many Christians, Jews, Muslims, Hindus and Buddhists, as well as believers of their sects - become more and more enemies, get rid of each other, commit terrorist acts and cut their throats Through, bombshell acts and leads war in their own families and ranks. You all think in your religious and sectarian illusion that your faith is the only right one, and that you must defend it with human blood, while you are completely alien to the true truth and do not know the creative laws and commandments.

They, the secret societies associated with the Vatican wastewater council, go hand in hand together, which in the last wars, to this day, have led the world to the brink of the abyss, are criminals, murderers and liars. You are the adulterers of true history, you are swindlers, you are assassins, and you enslave all humanity with your dirty religious sectarian, political tyranny. They are the archetypes of evil, they prevent the new energy machines, which on a simple basis are completely environmentally friendly, enable the energy to be adequately massed at every conceivable place and let the earth bleed and with it the people. More than 8 billion souls are on your earth, a maximum of 60 million of them have been recommended for a "special task", which seems to be about to be fulfilled. Until then, however, things will happen where the propaganda of the opponent will lament and fire his victims in terrible pictures in your heads. They will be surprising things, executed by your known structures and their heads.

Truly, the once flourishing life of man on earth, when there were no religions, sects, false ideologies and philosophies as well as no politics and imperial machinations of power-hungry men, as well as degenerate materialism, were still largely in order. However, religions, sects, lust for power, materialism, and imperialist attitudes destroyed any identity that sought equalization, which led to the once friendly and allied people of the earth in endless power struggles and religious wars, as well as terror, feuds, hatred, jealousy, revenge, retaliation and murder and manslaughter Miserable

One of the important reasons why religions and sects are false and erroneous in their doctrines is the indisputable fact that they fundamentally fundamentally the true nature of creation and its laws and commandments, and thus also the nature of life and death know. What the religions and sects teach their believers are errors and tribulations of the most evil form, and they overthrow men into terrible irrational fears, in fear and torment them in the most humane manner.

Everything has developed in the man of the earth to the pure thought of power, to intolerance and contempt for women as well as to the antagonism of nature, the denial of truth of the creative laws and commandments, as well as to the rampant overpopulation which destroys the climate and the nature of the earth. And further, by the thought of power of the rulers and the evil power of the religious faith of every kind, an almost unmanageable suppression of the freedom of consciousness has emerged. This shows a total abyssal disregard for the natural laws, and also of the creative laws and commandments, as well as of life and all existence.

Out of the parties, from trade unions and associations. Out of the system of gaiety, deception and lies, Out of politics, this is abolished anyway. Cancel your subscriptions, stop feeding the system. They will NOT be alone, you should not be frightened, for the captains on board the fleet have long since made their decisions, the releases have been formally given. In this case, if something terrible is happening on the earth, in your heart, do not rely on the lies of the sorcerer's apprentices of the Western demonic plutocracies, in whose cage you are trapped as slaves and system attendants. Liberation is announced, liberated the spirit, and begins with a separation from past values.

For the understanding of the present book with regard to the German language. The book you hold in your hands is a very special work of absolutely precise and precise statement, which is able to enrich your worlds decisively if you devote yourself to reading, openly and without prejudice.

The statements in this work are of such great precision only because the German language is currently the only one on our planet capable of expressing all necessary aspects and explanations clearly and unequivocally exactly as they have to be understood . The old German spelling, spelling and expression forms - which sometimes seem strange or peculiar - have always been so preconceived that interpretations or misunderstandings about their existence are excluded and the subject can be dealt with in a clear, logical and clear manner , Which in the present time is possible only in the German language.

The highly precise and absolutely accurate explanations of the German can at present not be equivalently translated into any other language existing on earth, which is justified by the fact that no other earthly language permits the same precise expressions as German. This circumstance requires more or less extensive explanations, descriptions and synonyms, which, however, render the statement watery and misleading.
